HEAR ME

DUY BENİ

Alex Tataryan & Eric Lige Turkish / English Lyrics

Turkish Verse 1:

Duy beni
Gör beni Sensiz bırakma Kör kuyular içinde Tek başıma
Yalnızım, susmuş kalbim

Turkish Verse 2:

Yok kinim, nefretim Gönül gözündeyim
Ne günahım var benim Bilirim herşeyin sonu Sen
Sustum Sensiz

Turkish Chorus:

Sen ve ben bazen Gökyüzünde bir kuş
Ve bazen
Masama konan bir serçe Ardından bin söz dilimde Bana göz kırpan ve birden Uçup giden bir meleksin Bembeyaz sayfamsın
Derde درمان olansın Sol yanımla Sen olmuş

çıkma zor menzilden
Her zaman yanımdasın Boynum bükük kimi zaman Bin hayır bir imtihan Bil ki bu kalp emanetini

English Verse 1:

Hear my cry Don't leave me standing all alone Here in the silence of my soul
You see me, You know my thoughts
You search within

English Verse 2:

I hold no grudge I hide no hatred in my heart
But if blinded by my sin Come search me
You know my thoughts Search deep within

English Chorus:

You and I Sometimes like birds
we always seem to fly So high above the clouds we reach the sky Where I am soaring

on the wind of love Where I am free from all my sin and shame My debt erased and now I'm born again You hold the key that frees my soul Lord in Your presence
I am whole A thousand words can never tell About this joy that lives in me
You make me smile
You make me free Because of You I now can see Today I bow my knee and pray
O God hear me

LET JUSTICE ROLL

Kimberly Holmes, Eric Lige & Tinika Wyatt (feat. Phil Allen)
English Lyrics

Verse 1:

Forgive us Lord for passing by when children cry for bread Forbid it Lord that justice lie in tatters cold and dead Outside these walls run desperate streets Where greed is law and life is cheap
We bar the doors Refuse to see Or hear the words
You said

Verse 2:

Convict us Lord
We dance and laugh
Ignoring those who weep Correct us Lord our golden calf Has lulled our hearts to sleep

The gap between the rich and poor Grows ever wider shore to shore There's racial hate, religious war
And wolves among the sheep

Chorus:

Call:
Let justice roll like a river
Response:
Let justice roll like a river
Call:
Let justice roll like a river
Response:
Let justice roll like a river

Verse 3:

Indwell us Lord and purify Our hands to work for You Enlist us Lord to serve nearby
And 'cross the waters too Your image-bearers on the earth Will never know how much they're worth Unless we love and help them first
And show the way to You

Bridge:

Let it roll
Let it roll
Let it roll
Let it roll
Let it roll

JUSTICE

LET JUSTICE ROLL SPOKEN WORD

Phil Allen Spoken Word

Like the stone that was rolled away From the mouth of the tomb
With death swallowing the bridegroom

Justice has no feet
It has wheels empowered by the Spirit
Not by horses Trampling over cosmic forces

Let's remove the detour signs

And allow the righteousness of the gospel to find

Find its way into the intersection of every ism that disrupts the beloved community of image-bearers
In this era of unrest and terror And anti-"fill in the blank"

Silence is the nail in the tire Treads of justice Slowly draining life
But no patch will suffice

We'll change the whole thing so justice can stay on the move And humanity can get its groove back like Stella And our hearts can beat as one as we sing a cappella

PAMELA'S STORY

Angela Mieville
English Story

My name is Angela Mieville and I'm from Chile, from the city of Puerto Montt. The song that I'm singing is called "Cuanto Te Amo" that translated is "How Much I Love You". This song was written by my sister, Pamela. I'm going to tell you a little bit about her. She was leading the worship music in my church since she was a teenager. She was very special [to] everyone around her—friends, community, and the church. She was very passionate about God and for her, her priorities were very clear from the beginning—God [first and then everything else]. This song really represents how she [felt] about God. So, what happened with my sister [is] she wrote a song many years ago and at some point when she was seventeen she started feeling headaches. During the summer she got a test and they discovered that she had a brain tumor. Later, they discovered that this tumor was malignant and they had to start treatments very soon. She had to travel to another city because we didn't have radiation therapy in the city where we lived. After traveling to another city to start this therapy and being there for a couple of days, she passed away. It was very shocking in the beginning but at the same time I experienced a feeling of peace that I had never felt before. I remember something very clearly that our Pastor said to us: "She didn't pass away [too soon]; she wasn't too young. The seventeen years that she lived was the amount of years she had to live." That's the story of my sister and I'm very proud to sing her song.

CUANTO TE AMO HOW MUCH I LOVE YOU

Angela Mieville
Spanish/English Lyrics

Spanish Verse:
Como los ríos corren hacia el mar
Así mi espíritu te busca Como la lluvia cae sin cesar Así tu unción desciende en este lugar

Quiero correr hacia tus brazos Señor Porque no hay un lugar mejor Que tu regazo

Spanish Chorus 1: Quiero estar cerca de Ti
Sentir tu corazón
Perderme en tu presencia
Y amarte, mi Señor

Spanish Chorus 2:
Quiero estar cerca de Ti
Sentir tu corazón
Perderme en tu presencia
Y decirte con passion

English Verse:
Like the rivers flow out into the sea
My spirit searches for You Like the rain falls without stop Let Your anointing fall in this place

English Pre-chorus: I want to run into Your arms Lord Because there's no better place Like Your embrace

English Chorus 1:
I want to be near You Get lost in Your presence
And love You my Lord

Feel Your heart
Get lost in Your presence
I want to tell You with passion

WOVEN

Olivia Ngozi Ajiake
English Spoken Word

“Story, Story, Story”

My father used to say, and I'd sit at his feet, without a worry, his words the clay. “Tell me a story” so the response goes. Lessons molded to love those who may be different from us. And thus ...

“Story, Story, Story” begins

I saw a beautiful tapestry the other day, and its yarns were of every color, of every shade. Distinct, none just blended --In touch, embedded. Each stitch weaved and threaded. It was complete with love and adoration, as if someone was saying “well done” to their creation.

From Syria to Japan, Guatemala to Swaziland, It stretched beyond borders and homelands

Then the tapestry embraced, keeping me warm. It was like waking to the smell of baleadas in my friend's home.

As my Haitian sister teaches me about her family values, It was when she gave me oxtail stew, as she gives me Cuban coffee brew. It was when I went to the temple, teach me how to pray, as she shares the hardships of being undocumented today. It was when we did the shoki, until 2 o'clock, as she shows me how her Indian remedies cure cough. Have you ever been changed because of what listening to a story imparts?

Intertwined even when it's not always kind, An injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere so we can't be blind. Even when raids, bombings, genocide, trafficking, hatred, poverty, just trying to survive. We see and hear your side

My love grows deeper because of these. I got a vision for the future and it don't require degrees.

Every tribe, every nation None created for marginalization

On Earth, as it is in Heaven
-- crack--

The fabric of the veil was torn. He was lynched on the day of salvation. Reconciled on the day of resurrection. It is by His stripes, that we are healed. My identity revealed.

I was knitted together in my mother's womb. From Ankara fabrics and European threads

I was given the name Ngozi, meaning 'blessing' not curse
My story is of different ancestral lines, my existence a sign, and though my parents' split, I know that unity can't be quit, Re-patched with celebration and lament

In His hands are the depths of the earth. I put my white flag down in the dirt to mend the pieces, we need His Peace, His Light, and so I pray and I hope that we gon' be alright Tell me a story ...

Աստված խոսեց GOD SPOKE

Arina Stepanyan & Jordyn Wyatt
Armenian / English Lyrics

Armenian Lyrics:

Արև, աստղեր, լուսին, ամպեր Այդ ո՞վ ստեղծեց:
Ծաղիկ, թիթեռ, դաշտեր, ծառեր Ո՞վ արարեց:

Աստված խոսեց, խոսքով
ստեղծեց
Այն, ինչ Նա արեց:
Ստեղծեց լեռներ,
ստեղծեց աստղեր, Ստեղծեց ազգեր:

Ինչ Նա ստեղծեց, բարի
ստեղծեց
Եվ շատ սիրեց:
Նա մեզ սիրեց, սերն Իր
հայտնեց, Լույս պարզեց:
Պարզևն այդ մեծ Հիսուսն

է տես, Նոր կյանքն է մեր:

Աստված խոսեց և լույս
ծագեց Սրտերում մեր:
Լույսը Աստծո Հիսուսն է
տես, Նոր կյանքն է մեր:

English Lyrics:

The flowers, the trees
The land and seas
Were made by God

The sun, the stars
The moon, the clouds
Were made by God

Right from the start
Out of the dark
He gave birth to life

‘Cause when God spoke
The earth was formed Creating new life

All that was made
Was made by God
He made it good

But when we failed

He still forgave
And made it good

God sent His Son
To set us free
And that was good

The greatest gift That God could give It made us good

Spoken:

For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son that whoever believes in Him will live with Him forever
